

And the WAWM EA
presents...

Financial Literacy for Professional Educators

Session Two

Wednesday, May 23rd, 2018

4:30 to 6:30 pm

Frank Lloyd Wright Media Center

(East Parking lot on 92nd street use Main door there will be signs)

Seats are limited to Members Only; food will be provided!

Must RSVP Session 2 to Region7@weac.org or (262) 901-1101

Topics Include:

- The importance of career earnings through Professional Development paths such as National Board Certification and Micro-Credentials in tandem with QEI
- The Tax Man Cometh: How the 2018 Law Affects You.
- Student Loans: Incurring (or Reducing) Debt.
- Saving for Retirement: TSAs, Deferred Comp, IRAs.
- Workplace Benefits: The Union's Role Going Forward.
- Workplace Benefits: How to Maximize Your Benefits.
- Playing Defense: Are You Under-Insured? Self-Insurance.
- Basic Stock/Bond Allocation 101: Fear of Losing Money.

Presenter: Dennis G. Eisenberg, Eisenberg & Associates, is a union Financial Planning Association member who monitored WRS for WEAC and had similar duties in Minnesota. This accomplished speaker has a master's degree in business, an advanced certificate in mutual fund management, chaired a pension committee for 20 years, and worked for the WEA TSA. He prepares low income and senior taxes pro-bono. He's also a regional and state judge for high school financial bowl competitions.

